What is Phi Theta Kappa?

Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society is the largest academic honor society. Being in multiple countries and having well over 2 million members, Phi Theta Kappa has become the most prestigious honor society in the world.

What is the purpose of Phi Theta Kappa?

The purpose of Phi Theta Kappa is to recognize and encourage scholarship among two-year college students. To achieve this purpose, Phi Theta Kappa shall provide opportunity for the development of leadership and service, for an intellectual climate for exchange of ideas and ideals, for lively fellowship for scholars, and for stimulation of interest in continuing academic excellence.

A Phi Theta Kappa Scholar

- Is a scholar of largest academic honor society
- Is in a global network of fellow scholars
- Has access to scholarships for two and four year colleges
- Has unmatched opportunities

If Phi Theta Kappa is international, how is it organized?

- The chapter level (we are the Alpha Pi Epsilon Chapter of Southwestern College)
- The district level (we are in the Southeast District)
- The regional level (we are in the Nevada/California Region)
- The international level (we are in Division IV)

How can we help you be successful in transferring?

- Phi Theta Kappa has websites developed exclusively for their members.
- CollegeFish.org is dedicated to serving as an online resource to promote positive two year completion and transfer pathways, empowering students and the higher education personnel who support them to achieve their goals in a seamless, timely manner.

How can we help you be successful in transferring?

- More than $37 million in transfer scholarships are made available to Phi Theta Kappa participants at over 700 universities!
- Scholarships are made available year round.
- 24/7 Transfer Help is available!

Even More Benefits of Membership

How can we help you become the best scholar?
